National Union Republican Ticket FOR PRESIDENT. ULYSSES & GRANT

POR VICE PRESIDENT. HENRY WILSON, of Massachusetts. For Presidential Electors. AT LARGE.

WM. E. STEVENSON, of Wood. THOMAS B. SWANN, of Kanawha lst-Charles P. Scott, of Ritchie. 2d-Thomas R. Carskadon, of Mineral. 3d-Romeo H. Freer, of Kanawha.

To the People of West Virginia. from all parts of the State, I have consented to be an independent candidate for re-election fo the office of Governor. J. J. JACOB.

IT seems to be generally conceded that the coming August will bring us one of the best corn crops ever known. Reports from the west and southwest are in the highest degree encouraging.

GEN. BANKS told an interviewer who inquired concerning the truth of the absurd rumors that he had pronounced for Gree-"I never contemplated any change in my political sentiments, and I never for a moment had any idea of abandoning the administration, and any statemen that may have been made to the contrary was wholly unauthorized by me."

IT is now declared by the free trade supporters of Greeley that his tariff doctrine never amounted to much, and that really, after all, the Tribuns never at heart favored protection. This sort of argument is quite unnecescary for the men who have determined to support Greeley, and it is such a left-handed compliment to him that we would think he would prefer that it should be omitted.

PHILADELPHIA is following the lead of New York in raising a fund by subscription for excursions to the poor children who have never heretofore seen anything outside the city, and an effort is being made in Baltimore in the same direction The movement is commendable, not only as a work of humanity, but as a powerful auxiliary in preserving the health of the classes in whose interest the excursions are given. New York now goes a step further, and, at the suggestion of the Times, which started the excursion project, is raising a fund for the relief of the sick children of the poor.

THE Providence Journal asks if it is not a singular misuse of terms to call an "enforcement bill" or "a torce bill" a bill which authorizes the Judge of the United States Court to appoint two persons of different political parties to be present at the polling and the counting of the votes at an election for member of Congress? What an act of tiranny! What an illustration of the despotism of the Republican party! That two men, one of each party, shall have the right to look on, and in case of fraud shall be competent witnesses! What is the country coming

THE illness of Gratz Brown being reported to be caused by "soft-shell crabs," one of those changes in the meaning of English words, which sometimes occur, is likely to ensue. The Missouri Democrat remarks that the title of John B. Gough's lectures henceforth will be "soft-shell crabs," and the sale of "soft-shell crabs" has been prohibited in Maine and Massachusetts. It further adds that Long John Wentworth always addresses audiences under the influence of "soft-shell crabs," and that ex-Senator Saulsbury once came very near being expelled from the Senate for excessive use of the same.

ENLARGEMENT OF TOP MILL.-The stockholders of the Wheeling Iron and Nail Works recently determined to enlarge their capital stock and build a furof Indians, who invariably regard the Kentucky, has consented to nace in connection with and directly adjoining their mill. It was proposed to increase the stock from $150,000 to $350,000; and an exhibit of the affairs of the Company was prepared and laid before a few gentlemen who were invited to become subscribers. In three days after the Company had definitely decided to erect the furnace, the additional $200,000 to $350,000; and an exhibit of the affairs of the Company was prepared and laid before a few gentlemen who were invited to become subscribers. The mill as rebuilt is one of the best establishments of the kind in the United States and is now running with nearly full force. It is expected, we believe, that the stone work of the furnace will be built this season and that the will be built this season and that the whole will be completed by the middle of next Summer. About three-fourths of this additional stock is taken by the old stock-holders. This furnace will be the first truit of the P. W. & K. Railroad. In time it will no doubt be followed by many similar enterprises along that line of road.

CHICAGO LETTER.

(Prom an occasional correspondent)

CHICAGO. July 19, 1872.

Not having bored your readers with a Chicago letter some time, and thinking doubtless a short letter from this transposition. The passengers pit their heads out of the windows, and with an anxiety which may easily be imagined, tried to see, the will be built this season and that the

Not having bored your readers with a Chicago letter some time, and thinking doubtless a short letter from this "neck o'

I presume the subject most interesting to your male your readers will be politics, and taking it for Grant-ed that their views correspond with your paper, I'm afraid I'll have to hurt their feelings as well as yours, for a correspondent must tell the truth, you know, however unpalatable, and oh, horrors! 'its all Horace here. It is mouth to give one the Brown child. and oh, horrors / tis all Horace here. It is enough to give one the Brown-chitis to see how noisily the Illinoisans throw up their white hats for Greeley and Brown. Tis true some of the Democracy wear their white hats heavily craped, but what does that signify? Oh, Democracy, how has the mighty fallen! Your correspondent can recollect the time, but a few years back, when it was considered a crime in his native State, then controlled by Democrats, to read the the New York Tribuns, and postmasters were in danger of losing their official heads if they permitted the ville sheet to be distributed from their offices. On the other hand, but a few months ago no epithet was too vile for the Baltimore nominee for the Presidency in describing the party that now so loudly shouts for "honest old Horace." Tempora nutantur et nos mu-tamur. Can it be that the long-looked for millenium is approaching, that the tamur. Can it be that the long-loosed for millenium is approaching, that the Democratic hon and Liberal Republican lamb are about to lie down together? Verily, "truth is stronger than fiction." How like a sheep that has strayed into a den of wolves Greeley must have felt when surrounded by those whom he had most bitterly denounced; those who had been his bitterest enemies? He was bound by political ties to the gasping dying been his bitterest elemines. He was bound by political ties to the gasping, dying body of Democracy; that body which, according to his testimony, was the concentrated essence of everything vile and despicable. Yet unhappily mated as these parties would seem to be, 'tis useless to deny that their adherents in this part of the country are numerous and delivery and the country are numerous and delivery and the country are numerous and delivery. of the country are numerous, and daily increasing. Greeley and Brown clubs are being formed all over the State, and prominent Republicans as well as Democratic speakers are making a thorough canvass of the State. The Grant party, relying too much on their former strength in this State, is not putting forth its best licks. If the Philadelphia Convention had given us Colfax for a leader we could have carried Illinois easily, but as they forced us to take Grant, with San Domingo, Casey, Leet, brothers-in-law, indirect damages, &c., &c., to help load us down, the result will be, in my opinon that this State will cast her electors vote in favor of Greeley and Brown.

REBUILDING. One by one the streets desolated by fire, are being filled up with handsome buildings. On some streets you would not know there had been a fire. Most of the prominent buildings, including the Sherman House, Briggs House, Pacific Hotel, Potter Palmer's Hotel, Tribune and Times offices Chamber of Comparers. offices, Chamber of Commerce, &c., are rapidly climbing upward. The fire has greatly benefitted some portions of the "West Side," also, especially Madison street, which bids fair to become one of the finest streets in the city.

AMUSEMENTS. The chief attraction in this line, the present week, has been the noted French Band, of Jubilee tame. President Thiers having consented that the hand should visit Chicago, Mr. Chas. Wyndham, of the "Wyndham Comedy Company," came to the conclusion that it would be a grand chance to secure the proceeds of their concerts, and thus replenish a purse; which had become somewhat depleted, owing to the alim desire for comedy this Summer; and much to the chagrin of the Summer; and much to the chagrin of the French citizens of the city, he secured the management of the band, during its stay here, and has been exhibiting them, on the South and West Side, alternately, for the last four nights. Of course immense crowds attended the performances, and at $2 and $5 per head, Mr. Wyndham has certainly made a handsome profit.

The music of this band has been described so often that it would be superfluous in me to attempt a description of it.
Suffice it to say that the admirable instrumentation, delicate phrasing, and splendid time exhibited by it has delighted everybody, and the highest encomiums of praise have been bestowed upon it.

To-day the band has been honored with a grand picnic at Riverside. To-night a grand pichic at Riverside. To-night there is to be an open air concert on the South Side, in the base ball grounds, and to-morrow night on the West Side, in Greens Garden.

At the Academy of Music, Kate Fisher and her horse "Wonder," have been delighting slim audiences with Byron's Mazeppa. Kate is a buxom lass and 'tis farcical to see what a womanly Lockies may zeppa. Kate is a buxom lass and tis lat-cical to see what a womanly looking man she makes. Next week Edwin Adams is on the boards.

At the Globe the Wyndham Comedy Company have been holding forth for a number of weeks. This is their last week, however. Hooley's Minstrels succeed them.

Tony Pastor's New York Variety Troupe has been holding forth in Nixon's Hipprodome for the past week to crowded NORWAY.

Yesterday the loyal Norwegians of this Yesterday the loyal Norwegians of this city, in commemoration of the thousandth anniversary of the union of the their country by "Harold, the Fairhaired," in common with their countrymen all over the world, had a celebration. There are about 12,000 of that nationality in this city, and repairing to Haas' Park they had a Grand Festival. What a time there will be in America in the year 2776. Idon't know that Pill be present at that time, but if I am, I will take pleasure in writing you a full account of the proceedwriting you a full account of the proceedings. More anon, Occasional.
